Ponderings from the pastor's desk...

On this Holy Trinity Sunday we are reminded that we are made in God's image and likeness. Just as God is God only in a Trinitarian relationship, so we can be fully human only in a relationship of three partners. The self needs to be in a horizontal relationship with others and a vertical relationship with God. In that way our life becomes Trinitarian like that of God. Then we discover that the so-called "I" principle of unbridled individualism which is acceptable in modern society leaves much to be desired. The doctrine of the Blessed Trinity challenges us to adopt rather an I-and-God and neighbor principle. I am a Christian insofar as I live in a relationship of love with God and other people. May the grace of the Holy Trinity help us to banish all traces of self-centeredness in our lives and to live in love of God and of neighbor.

No one should underestimate how important it is to observe Father's Day and focus our thoughts on the critical role fathers play in our society as they influence our children's lives. A father's role in the upbringing of children goes way beyond providing the basis of food and shelter. The presence or absence of a father in a child's home; how a father relates to a child's mother; how a father relates to a child and how a father interacts with others in society all have an enormous influence on the development of a child's personality, outlook on life and behavior. Father's Day is a day to acknowledge the positive influence of fathers on children, as individuals and collectively. But unfortunately, many children today do not have a father in the home, yet their need for the influence of a positive male role model remains as strong as ever. This Father's Day, as we celebrate the positive, productive, protective dads our society has produced, let us resolve to redouble our efforts to ensure that their gifts are passed on to successive generations. Let us make sure that the wholesome qualities of our best fathers are imparted to all our sons, so that images of the typical father remains as powerful and positive as ever.

Peter's Pence Collection is next weekend. In many places around the globe, the Church struggles to be a visible sign of Christ's peace: in poor dioceses where many depend on the Church for social and pastoral support; in regions where Catholics are persecuted and must be helped discreetly; in nations overloaded with refugees or victims of war and natural disasters. The Peter's Pence Collection gives us the opportunity to extend a sign of peace to the Body of Christ around the world. Our gifts to this annual Collection help the Holy Father strengthen dioceses, religious orders, and struggling communities of faith when they need it most. Please help the Holy Father continue to cast the peace of Christ upon the world by generously supporting the Peter's Pence Collection.

Remember next Sunday's Corpus Christi Procession beginning at St. Mary's at 1pm with special prayers at Sacred Heart and Avera with refreshments and farewell's at Sacred Heart at 2 pm. Also Monday June 27 workshops will be held at Sacred Heart on the New Roman Missal. Father Ed Pierce

THANK YOU!

Thanks to all who have supported the Revitalizing Roncalli High School campaign with your time, talent, and treasure! Your investment in Roncalli will produce important upgrades at RHS this summer: new heating and air conditioning, new windows, new bathrooms, and new lighting. These renovations will be completed this summer as we continue the campaign to raise money for the additional renovations in this phase of the project. Our campaign has pledges of nearly $3.9 million! Thanks to everyone who has gotten us here. We still need your help to realize our goals.

Please visit www.aberdeenroncalli.org to view our campaign video and get updates or call us at 226-2100. Check out the construction progress on the Aberdeen Catholic School System Facebook page. Thank you for investing your money with Revitalizing Roncalli High School.
