Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 4, 2011

Coming to Sacred Heart Parish has been wonderful. I have received nothing but welcomes and open arms. I can tell we are both very excited to be together. I say what I said when I first came here a month ago, quoting St. Paul, “This is my third time visiting you, and I don’t want what you have, I only want you. I will spend myself for you and gladly be spent for you.” This is the third time I am visiting you. I already know many of you from my college years at NSU, then from my seminary summer with you and now back as your priest. This is truly my third time with you! Like St. Paul, I want to spend myself for you and get to know all of you! Some of us are strangers to each other for now, but I desire to quickly close this gap. In desire to get to know you, it has naturally happened as I have had four funerals and one burial in these past seven days. I have also gotten to know you through home visits and going to your sporting events, etc. Some may think I am just looking for a free meal and good ball game. Call it what you want, I am interested in knowing the sheep that Christ has entrusted to me. If that means having a good meal and watching a good game, then so be it.

As I desire to know you, I am sure you desire to know me. Allow me to give a little background. I was born and raised in Sisseton, SD. My parents are Isaac and Hilda Haggerty, who moved to Aberdeen three years ago. I have four siblings. Andy is married with two kids in Alexandria, MN. Mike is married with three kids in Arlington, SD. Christi is a single mom in Aberdeen, SD, and my identical twin Shane is a banker and professional dancer in St. Paul, MN (Shane also was in the seminary with me for three years). Growing up in Sisseton, I did a lot of work for family construction and plumbing, but mostly cleaning out sewers, that’s right cleaning out sewers. (I figured if I was good at opening clogged sewers, I would be good at opening up clogged hearts from sin ha...). Also growing up in Sisseton, I had a great neighborhood of guys, and I played almost every sport imaginable. Consequently, I stay active.

After High School in Sisseton, I went to NSU, and I was on track to be a math teacher and coach football and track. However, God had a different race he wanted me to run. Priesthood! During my two years at NSU I began pray often. This opened my ears to hear what God had planned for my life. To make a long and adventurous story short, I went to St. John Vianney Seminary in St. Paul, MN for three years and then studied at St. John Vianney Seminary in Denver, CO for four years. Lastly, I just finished my first two years of priesthood in Sioux Falls at Holy Spirit Parish. I had an absolutely blest time serving God and His people there with Fr. J.P. Morgan. I will always cherish my time with them. At Holy Spirit I got to know and love the people very well. I was very involved in every capacity in the parish especially with the youth. My hope is to do the same here. My biggest desire though is to just be present and to get to know all of you so that I will be better able to help you along in living the life of Jesus to get to Heaven.

"I confess"

by Nathan Knutson, Diocese of Sioux Falls

Sin and selfishness blind us from the Truth and our faith often becomes lukewarm. "The root of sin is in the heart of man, in his free will...but in the heart also resides charity, the source of the good and pure works, which sin wounds." This statement from the Catechism of the Catholic Church(n.1853) should call us back to lives of holiness, aided most especially by the Sacraments of Confession and the Holy Eucharist. These two Sacraments have similarities in form throughout, most especially found within the penitential rite of Holy

Mass. Think about when we go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation. After a thorough examination of conscience and a willful regret of sin through personal contrition, we confess our sin in name and number, receive penance, make our act of contrition, receive the absolution, and carry out our penance. The Confiteor at Mass does not have the same graces and remission of Mortal sin as the Sacrament of Penance, yet our thought process should be similar. We should examine our lives, willfully regret our wrongdoing, resolve to not sin again, and confess to Almighty God our sin. Our act of contrition, the tri-fold mea culpa allows for a sincere repentance of heart. It is not merely unnecessary repetition, instead we participate in liturgical action by striking our breast in humility. We then ask for the prayers of our blessed and ever-virgin Mother, traditionally to St. Michael the Archangel, St. John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Ss. Peter and Paul—ordinarily gathered into the collective prayer of "all the Angels and Saints"—and petition our faithful brothers and sisters for prayers to God. We then receive the absolution of venial sins. Note again the new translation's proper syntax: "May Almighty God...lead us, with our sins forgiven, to eternal life."

MUSICIANS WANTED

We are looking for more people to share their time and talents in music ministry. There are many opportunities for you to get involved. All you need to do is take that step in faith and answer God's call to share your gifts with His parish. The contemporary choir sings for every Saturday 5:00 pm Mass; the traditional choir sings for every Sunday, 9:30 am Mass; the Latin Choir sings once a month for the Sunday, 11:30 am Mass; and the children's choirs - grades 1-2 and 3-6 - sing a number of times during the school year for the Sunday, 11:30 am Mass as well as for the 4:00 pm Christmas Eve Mass. We are always looking for more people to minister by cantoring or sharing their instrumental talents in piano, percussion, woodwinds, brass, strings. Will you please consider joining us as we offer praise and thanksgiving to God through music? Now is the time for you to stop hiding behind insecurities and excuses and to trust in the Holy Spirit and the gifts He has planted in your hearts.
