Dear Parish Family,

It is our hope, and the promise of Christ, that he will return again in glory to judge the living and the dead. In the Prophets and in the Book of Revelation, the Messiah is depicted on a throne, like a judge. This is how Jesus will come at the end of the world, to judge the living and the dead. The Last Judgment is a truth handed on to us in the very earliest creedal statements of the Church and defined as a dogma of the faith.

The Gospel passage mentions giving people food and drink, clothes and visiting them. These are Christian works of charity, that are essential not optional! It is in our service to the poor, that we encounter Christ. When we fail to be generous with the gifts and talents God has given us, we commit the sin of omission. Failure to do something which one should do means leaving Christ unattended.

We must learn to recognize Christ when he comes out to meet us in our brothers and sisters, the people around us. No human life is ever isolated. It is bound up with other lives. No man or woman is a single verse; we all make up one divine poem which God writes with the cooperation of our freedom. (Blessed J. Escriva, Christ is Passing By, 111).

St. Teresa of Avila writes: "Here the Lord asks only two things of us: love for his Majesty, and love for our neighbor".

May Christ be our King, now and forever! Amen!

Peace to you and yours, Fr. Shane D. Stevens

DISPELLING MYTHS ABOUT CHURCH MUSIC

Myth 7. Chant is too hard for people today to sing.

There are two principal obstacles to chant today. Many people are no longer fluent enough in Latin to understand or even pronounce it properly, and even most musicians are unfamiliar with its notation.

Just as it takes practice and education to play an instrument well, it takes time and patience to learn the language and the markings of chant. There are resources for musicians to learn the chant properly, and teaching choirs and congregations chant may take time, but it will yield amazing results.

Many people sing things that are actually more difficult. Consistent effort will break down barriers and open up new possibilities for people to sing.

When Msgr. Martin Hellriegel became pastor of Holy Cross in St. Louis in the 1950s, nobody in his parish had ever heard chant. He started teaching the school children, and the adults were inspired to learn. Within a few years, his people knew several chant Masses and could sing out of the church's official hymnal, the Graduale Romanum.

Dedication and perseverance gave the people confidence that they could sing Gregorian chant and many people today still know from memory the music they learned in the parish.
