Dear Parish Family,

Next week we have two great opportunities for faith formation. I hope you are able to be present for the following:

NEW ROMAN MISSAL TRANSLATION WORKSHOPS

Embrace this time of opportunity to enrich your knowledge and understanding of the Catholic faith. By attending these workshops you can begin the journey of awareness, or if you have begun that journey you will find these sessions to help you advance further.

When – Tuesday – November 8, 15, 22 - 7:00-8:00 pm

Where – Sacred Heart Parish Hall, Aberdeen

Dr. Chris Burgwald will present information about the new translation as well as help all who attend to learn more about the Catholic faith as a whole. Each week he will present a different topic and offer time for discussion at the end of each session. These sessions will be beneficial to all – young/old, religious/lay persons, ministry leaders, DREs, and all interested people.

SESSION I – ‘Biblical Roots of the Mass’

SESSION II – ‘Biblical Basis of True Presence’

SESSION III – ‘Walk Through the Mass – Why We Do What We Do and Why the New Translation’

Refreshments will be served following the presentations.

BOOK OF PSALMS

Bible Study: The Book of Psalms: Part I: Psalms 1 to 41. Learn more about the Book of Psalms Monday evenings November 7 through November 28. Deacon Richard Kelley will lead this bible study (without videos) in the Religious Education Room 5:30—6:30. You may bring your own bible or bibles will be provided.

TIME TO CLEAN!

Parish families are invited to join in and help clean the church for the holidays. We'll meet after the Saturday 8:15AM Mass on Nov 12.

Bring a rag, a bucket, and a vacuum if you can. Many hands make the work go quickly."

WINTER GEAR UP!

We are in the process of stepping up our Works of Mercy here in our parish. Please consider bringing food items every month throughout the winter. It has come to our attention that children in our parish and community are in need of winter gear: coats, snow pants, boots and shoes. Winter clothing is also appreciated! If you have gently used items that can be re-used, please bring them to the Parish Hall Kitchen Storage Room, and Michele Coughlin will be sure the items get distributed to needy children. Another way for parishioners to help is to give us names of families or children who are in need. One act of mercy at a time, we can be the hands and heart of Christ for others.

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration is available in our community 24/7 at Avera St. Luke's Hospital. We are so blessed to have such a beautiful and safe environment for Adoration. Please pray for faithful adorers so this can continue and consider making a commitment to spend an hour each week with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Personal invitations are needed from those of you who have experienced this special blessing. Open hours are: Sun. 9 a.m., Mon. 2 a.m., Tues. 10 p.m., Fri. 1 a.m., 3 a.m., Sat. 4 p.m., Sat. 6 p.m., 9 p.m. Please call Theresa at 226-0838 or Mary at 225-6001.

I am willing to release my fears and judgments, I will treat myself and others with forgiveness.

Myth 5. Vatican II abolished Latin in the Mass.

Vatican II's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy states, "The use of the Latin language is to be preserved." The council fathers commanded the use of Latin while allowing for some use of the vernacular.

The same document also calls for the faithful to be able to sing parts of the Mass together in Latin. Latin gives the church a universal language.

In an increasingly mobile culture of globalization, Catholics able to follow the Mass in Latin and in their own tongue can actively participate in their church anywhere in the world. The use of Latin also frees us from being too narrow-minded and too centered on our own nation or culture; it connects us with our history and paves the way for our future.

The point of Latin is not to make the rites impossible to understand; it is to make real the universality of the church.

One can often see people at international Masses who can all make the Latin responses and sing some things together in Latin. A powerful experience of the church's unity is when we all sing with one voice the same words that Catholics have always sung at Mass

All proceeds are divided among Special Olympics, SPURS, and the Roncalli Special Education program. Please be generous.

DISPELLING MYTHS ABOUT CHURCH MUSIC

Myth 4. We are supposed to sing four hymns at Mass.

Catholics in the United States have become used to singing a hymn at the entrance, at the offertory, during Communion and at the recessional at Sunday Mass. This "four-hymn sandwich" actually harkens back to pre-Vatican II days in which congregations who could not pull off Latin music were allowed to sing English hymns at Low Masses.

When English was allowed in the Mass and the rite of Mass changed, many parishes continued this practice, albeit often with different music. While hymns are allowed at Mass, they are not actually what the church asks for during those times.

The missal, the large book from which the priest reads the prayers at Mass, provides short scriptural sentences called antiphons for the entrance and communion. In the church's legislation on sacred music, these antiphons have pride of place for singing in the Mass. The antiphons are intimately connected with the other prayers of each Sunday's Mass. The church allows for substitutions with other appropriate songs, but they should be modeled in character after those antiphons.

Hymns are not a part of the Roman eucharistic liturgy; they belong more properly to the Liturgy of the Hours. The church prefers the antiphons drawn from the Bible to hymns composed by people.
